GETTING TO KNOW DSP OF THE MONTH

CAITLIN SHAFFER

What do you like to do in your free time?

Spend time with family & friends.

How long have you worked as a Direct Support Professional?

Four years.

What got you started in the field?

I grew up with family members & friends with had different types of developmental delays. I was raised believing that everyone is different and unique, and that was my normal. It just seemed fitting to get into this field.

Was there a mentor in this field that has stood out for you?

All my co-workers have stood out to me in one way or another, and taught me great lessons & different ways to think about a situation.

What is your favorite thing to do with the people you serve?

Getting outside and enjoying the weather; doing activities that bring the individuals joy.

What is your favorite part of being a DSP?

I love every aspect of my job. Every day is a new day; no two days are the same, and we're always doing something new or different.

CONGRATULATIONS, CAITLIN!
